

AVANTE GARDE

Who we are

Avante Garde (AG) is a Colorado non-profit organization established in 2021. Our operation in the Denver Metro area aims to provide continued education for local artists by offering workshops, Art events, and opportunities to showcase artists.

Avante Garde has formed partnerships with Colorado businesses and Colorado educators to create continuing education programs for local artists, members of AG, and the local community. AG serves new artists, established artists, and projects that intend to nurture and cultivate gender equality, global sustainability, and good health & well-being with events & educational workshops provided by Avante Garde and its community.

Avante Garde created the offerings provided by this organization in direct response to the need to deepen the connection in the Art community and uplift the Art & culture within the Colorado community.

Why?

- Support the Arts & Culture of Colorado native to the region
- Funds directly impact individual local up & coming artists of all ages.
- Latina Owned Women operated, Directors are a diverse bunch (one Asian, Jewish, Hispanic, & Black female director)
- Financial, in-kind donations, Space
- Contribute and impact the Colorado Arts & Culture
